The People's Party.

St. Louis, Jan. 17.—Seventy-five members of the National Committee of the People's Party assembled at the Lindell Hotel at 11:30 a. m. Chairman H. L. Taubeneck announced that the time to 1:30 would be devoted to hearing suggestions as to the time and place of holding the convention and what the platform should contain. The speeches were limited to five minutes each. Captain Charles A. Power of Terre Haute, said that silver was the paramount issue, and that if the Populists would confine themselves to that they would win.

Clemmens of Topeka, Kansas, said that one of the planks of the Omaha platform was the Government ownership of railroads. That plank had been particularly assailed, and now that very thing is represented to Congress in such a way as to make it impossible for any honest man to grant an extension of the Pacific railroad debts.

Hammond in Peril.

San Francisco, Jan. 17.—General N. H. Harris today received a cable dispatch from Mrs. E. A. Wiltz at London, which is as follows:

"Hammond is in solitary confinement. His position is critical. The others are all right. A strong demand on the United States Government in his behalf is necessary forthwith."

From the cablegram, John Hays Hammond's friends here believe that the South African Republic has some special grievance against Hammond.

The following dispatch was received later by William Alvord, President of the Bank of California, from United States Senator Perkins, dated Washington:

"Our Government is using every effort to protect Hammond, Mayne and other Americans in Johannesburg. I have submitted your telegram to Secretary Olney."

Tried to Kill a Judge on the Bench.

San Francisco, Jan. 17.—Sam of Thompson, the aged newsdealer arrested on a charge of assaulting little girls who has thrice attempted suicide in his cell, was in the Police Court today to answer to the accusation. He suddenly left his attorney's side, tore down the chandelier and attempted to kill Judge Conlan with the broken chandelier and gas pipe. The police have him now in a padded cell.

Murdered his Child.

Kentland, Ind., Jan. 17.—Albert Tollis, a farmer living nine miles from here, was brought to this place this morning and lodged in jail charged with murdering his eight months old child. The infant's crying annoyed Mr. Tollis, it is alleged, so he placed his hand over his mouth and smothered it. Popular feeling runs high and violence is feared.
